The turnpike road to Truro is the boundary of Killiserth for nearly one mile and a half, and the other roads adjoining or leading to the Premises are remarkably good and convenient. But if the Estate be divided, it is intended to comprise Killiserth and Hendra in One Farm, and Pengelly and Penhale in another Farm, and in that case suitable Farm Houses would be also provided.

The Taker will be expected to purchase the corn in the ground, and pay for dressing carried and not scattered, at a valuation to be made in the usual way, and will be required to accept a lease and execute a counterpart, to be prepared at his expense, by the lessor's solicitor, and to contain all usual and proper exceptions, reservations, covenants, stipulations, restrictions, and conditions, for reserving the game, and minerals, and trees, and saplings, and other rights of the landlord, and securing the due and proper cultivation, and management of the farm, and the repair of the same, of the buildings and fences.

Sealed Tenders either for the whole Estate, or for either of the Lots as above divided, will be received by the Proprietor, Mr. SIMMONS, at Trevella, near Truro, or by Mr. SIMMONS, jun., Solicitor, 2, Princes-street, Truro, until the 29th day of SEPTEMBER next, soon after which time the Taker or Takers whose Tender or Tenders may be accepted, will have notice thereof. And in the meantime, for a view of the farms, application must be made to Mr. SIMMONS, and for any further particulars, to him, or Mr. SIMMONS, jun., at whose office the form of the lease or leases required to be accepted by the taker or takers may be seen.

N.B.—The Lessor is not to be considered as obliged to accept the highest tender. Dated Truro, August 18th, 1847.
