NEWS OF THE WEST

LAUNCESTON.

The engagement is announced of Mr. Eric Frank Youngman, of the Eastern Telegraph Company, son of the late Mr. F. S. Youngman, of Wilby, Norfolk, and Mrs. F. S. Youngman, of Besthorpe, Horsham, Sussex, to Miss Cecilia (Cecilia Avery) Bickford, youngest daughter of Mrs. and the Rev. Walter W. Bickford, of The Sanctuary, Altarnon, Launceston.

LIVERTON.

At a general meeting of the Raytor Vale Cricket Club on Monday, Mr. T. Dexter presided in his position as hon. secretary. A vote of thanks was passed to him for his valuable services. Mr. Dredge was asked to take over the office. It was decided to hold a whist drive and dance on October 18th. Messrs. T. Sanders, C. Cox, S. Wyatt, jun., and S. Wood, sen., were elected as the Whist Drive Committee.

The Liverton United Footballers' whist drive and dance was held on Saturday night. It is hoped that £4 profit will be the result. The Casino Orchestra played well, and Messdames Hunter and Wyatt presided.

Dougal Waldron did the hat trick against Buckland.

Miss Booker, of the County Medical Department, Exeter, gave an address to the Women's School in connection with a meeting of the school Parents' Association. Mrs. Hunt, who organised the Headmaster, Mr. F. C. Doidge, has brought an excellent instructive health exhibition, and after an address to the senior children, gave an enjoyable talk to about 150 children and their parents. Miss Wyatt, who was assisted by the Health Visitor, Miss Walters, gave a practical demonstration to five classes: Cripples' teeth, clothes, vitamins, and a chamber of horrors. The result of the competition organised by the Headmasters' prize for which were given by the Health and Cleanliness Council in London, was announced by Miss Booker as follows: Mrs. F. E. Waldron and Miss Lutton, Northaw—Importance of points necessary for the successful nursing of every baby, 1, food; 2, clothing; 3, cleanliness; 4, fresh air; 5, exercise; 6, suitable clothes.

The annual general meeting of the Workers' Educational Association, held in the Hut, was presided over by the chairman, Councillor H. L. C. Gregory. A rule was made to the effect that any member of the committee failing to attend three successive committee meetings without a reasonable excuse being given to the school of the committee member. The following officers for the session 1929-30 were elected: President, Miss Northaw; chairman, Mr. L. C. Gregory; vice-chairman, Mr. P. C. Bodger; hon. secretary, Mrs. H. Bickford; hon. treasurer, Mrs. Gregory; hon. librarian, Miss Squires; committee, Mrs. W. Cox, Mrs. Emil, Mrs. Satterley, Messrs. R. Cox, S. Potter, Chas. Squire. The hon. treasurer's report showed the balance sheet, our receipts £29 2s 8d, expenditure £15 11s 4d, in hand £9 12s 4d. Invited for 30 Mr. P. C. Bodger, the Hon. Organiser, congratulated the Group on its work during the session. He contrasted the work in Liverton had made it possible for groups to get finance from the Board of Education for community drama. He outlined the scheme of work for the session, and said that the first term would be devoted to the dramatic scenes from "The Tempest." The lecture evenings will consist of four talks by Mr. Bodger on "The War of the World," talks from volunteer readers, and members' evenings on the first Thursday in each month.

LYDFORD.

Much regret was felt when it became known that Mr. Arthur Petherick, one of Lydford's most respected parishioners, had passed away. Mr. Petherick had been postmaster of Lydford for some years, and also carried on the business of a builder. He was highly esteemed by his fellow villagers and friends, and a large number gathered at the graveside on Saturday to pay their last respects. The Rev. Molyneux conducted the service. The hymns, "Shepherd divine, our wants relieve" and "Rock of ages" were sung. Messrs. W. and F. Dowell played the Dead March. Messrs. W. A. Symons, H. Heathgate, F. Fry, W. Cooke, E. Stanbury, and S. Howell were the bearers. The breastplate bore the inscription:—"Arthur Petherick, died September 20th, 1929, aged 67 years." The mourners were: The widow, W. R. Petherick and C. R. Petherick (sons), May Petherick (daughter), Miss Petherick (sister), Mr. F. J. Petherick, Plymouth (nephew), Frances Petherick (niece), H. R. Petherick and J. R. Petherick (nephews), Mrs. A. R. Petherick (daughter-in-law), Mrs. W. Coles and Mrs. H. Coles (sisters-in-law), Mr. H. Coles (brother-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Blithe (Chillaton), Mrs. Bickle, Mr. R. H. Dawe (Tavistock), Mrs. T. Bickle (Tamerton Foliot). There was a large number of beautiful floral tributes, including a full-length cross from the widow and Family; Lena and Alfred; Herbert and family; Fanny and family; Lillie Edna; Mary, Grace and Nan; Polly and the girls; Annie and Harry; all at Ilford; May, Jim and Frances. Among those present included Mr. and Mrs. E. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Caston, Mr. E. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook, Mrs. Hammett, Mrs. Hammett, Alderman Nicholls, Mr. Preston, Mr. J. Hodge, Mr. S. Rice, Mr. Jack Hodge, Mr. Ball, Mr. Pearn, Misses Newman, Mrs. Brooks, Mr. Atherton, Mrs. Atherton, Mr. C. Clements, Mrs. Clements, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Mr. E. Huggins, Mrs. Huggins, Mr. T. Phillips, Miss T. Phillips, Miss Cole, Mr. Alford, Mrs. W. Cooke, Mrs. Mills, Mr. A. May, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rice, Mr. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Cartledge, Mr. H. Stanbury, Mrs. Edwards, Mr. B. Bickle, Mrs. Down, Miss Down, Mr. B. Tout, Mr. Bradford, Mr. W. Down, Mr. V. Down, Miss Callwell, Mrs. Stevens, Miss Boundy, Mr. A. Pengelly, Mrs. A. Pengelly, Mr. E. Shillabeer, Mr. W. Stevens, Mr. S. Bolt, Mr. W. Lavis, Mr. and Miss Crocker, Mr. S. Clifton, Mr. E. Gilbert, Mr. A. Mansbridge, Miss K. Mansbridge, Mr. and P. Sanders, Mr. W. W. Kennard, Mr. A. Martin, Mrs. E. Martin, Mrs. L. Cole, Miss Cole, and many others. Mr. Richard (Postmaster, Okehampton), Mr. H. T. Radford (Ingo Brake, Lydford), and Mr. Porter (Exeter) were unavoidably absent.

MARWOOD.

Marwood Wesleyan Methodists are celebrating the centenary of their church at Prixford in December, when a thanksgiving day is being held.

MOLLAND.

A pretty wedding was solemnised at the Parish Church on Monday, Rev. E. Bell officiating, the contracting parties being Miss June Heal, third daughter of Mr. H. Heal and the late Mrs. Heal, of Brimley, and Mr. A. W. Pook, of Bridgerule. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a frock of blue crepe de chine, with hat en suite, and was accompanied by her sister, Miss Ada Heal (sister the bridesmaid), wore a dress of pink crepe de chine, with hat en suite. The bridegroom is the youngest son of the late Mrs. and Mr. F. Pook, of Bridgerule. The bridegroom was accompanied by a friend, Mr. J. Rottenbury, as best man. As the wedding party left the church they were showered with showers of confetti. The reception was held at the home of the bride's father, and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Pook were given a hearty send off on the arrival of the motor-car. Many useful presents were received.

At a meeting of the Entertainment Committee it was decided to hold classes for butter-making and stock judging some time in October.

MORETONHAMPSTEAD.

The harvest thanksgiving services on Sunday at the Moretonhampstead Parish Church were well attended, the sacred edifice being prettily decorated. Messrs. White-head and Bartlett, two Missionary messengers, conducted the services.

At Moretonhampstead Baptist Chapel on Sunday the services on the occasion of the harvest thanksgiving were well attended. There was a fine display of fruit, vegetables and flowers. Mr. W. G. Heath, of Bovey Tracey, was the preacher. Mrs. W. G. Heath was the soloist at the evening service, which Mrs. Squire presided at the organ. On Monday a public meeting was held, at which Mr. Arnold Newton Abbott and Jr. Dunbar (Chagford) were the chief speakers. The Rev. G. W. Hodgson presided. The Congregational Church gave up their evening service on Sunday in order to join the Baptists.

At Moretonhampstead Sessions, on Tuesday, William Saffin, of Yardown Cottage, Drewsteignton, who did not appear but sent a letter pleading guilty was fined 10s for riding a bicycle without lights.

Harriet Agnett of Ivy Cottages, Moretonhampstead, was at the local sessions, on Tuesday ordered to pay the costs of, for not sending his child to school. He was further ordered to send the child to school regularly.

OAKFORD.

The funeral of Mr. Henry Summers, of Oakford, whose sudden death was recorded in last week's issue, took place at Oakford on Friday in the presence of many relatives and friends. The service, in the United Methodist Church, was conducted by the Rev. F. Dennis (Tiverton) and the Rev. R. E. Collins (Bampton). Deceased's favourite hymn, "There is a land that is fairer than day," was sung. Mrs. Denner being at the organ. Mr. Dennis, who represented the circuit, delivered an address, as, of course, did the same set by Mr. Summers' life and work. After the service in the chapel the cortege proceeded to the local gate, where it was met by the Rev. E. M. Kelly (Rector of Oakford), who conducted the committal service. The mourners were Jack, Bert and Charlie (sons), Ethel, Gertie, Phoebe, and Jessie (daughters), Mrs. Summers (widow), Mr. and Mrs. Newton (daughters-in-law), Mr. H. Hawkins, Mr. Prescott (sons-in-law), Mr. Gregge Summers (nephew), and Mrs. and Mrs. Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Bucknell, Mr. and Mrs. S. Summers (nephews and nieces), Mr. and Mrs. Tucker and Miss Tucker (brother-in-law, sister-in-law and niece), Master C. Hawkins (grandson). The widow and Mrs. Hawkins (daughter) were unable to attend owing to illness. Among the friends at the chapel and graveside were Mr. and Mrs. Warren (Bampton), Mr. and Mrs. Watts (Mead), Mr. Newton, Mrs. Chapple (Western), Miss Isaac, Mr. and Mrs. Venner, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Hutchings, Mrs. Bale, Mrs. Frith, Mrs. Park, Miss Haydon, Mrs. Bromfield, Mr. Green, Messrs. S. and A. Isaac. The coffin, which was of polished oak, bore on the breastplate the inscription:—"Henry Summers, died September 16th, 1929, aged 72 years." The floral tributes were: Wife, daughter